SECOND AMENDED
PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

This matter is before the Court on the plaintiff's second Motion for Amended Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (filing 971) with respect to the above-captioned defendants. For the reasons set forth below, the government's motion will be granted.

A superseding indictment in this case (filing 284) charged each of the above-captioned defendants with, among other things, one count of conspiring to harbor aliens in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1324. The superseding indictment contained a forfeiture allegation seeking the forfeiture, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 982(a)(6) and (b)(1) and 21 U.S.C. § 853, of property alleged to have facilitated or intended to facilitate the commission of the conspiracy offense. Filing 284 at 22-26. And each of the above-captioned defendants has pled guilty to the count of conspiring to harbor aliens in the superseding indictment, and admitted the forfeiture allegation. Filing 453 at 1; filing 317 at 1; filing 436 at 1; see filing 475 at 26; filing 343 at 13-15; filing 499 at 22. By virtue of pleading guilty to the charge and admitting the forfeiture allegation, the defendants have forfeited their interest in the property, and the plaintiff should be entitled to possession of the property pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 982(a)(6) and (b)(1) and 21 U.S.C. § 853.

On November 26, 2019, the Court entered a preliminary order of forfeiture (filing 756) that forfeited the defendants' interests in the subject property. However, due to the passage of time two properties subject to that order, 2915 Carroll Street and 4797 Judson Avenue, no longer had sufficient net equity to permit forfeiture. Filing 969 at 1-2. So, the government requested an amended preliminary order of forfeiture excluding those two properties. Filing 969 at 2. The government further requested the Court order it to publish notice of the amended preliminary order and provide written notice to any person who reasonably appears to have standing to contest the forfeiture and any person known to have an alleged interest in the remaining properties, even though it has previously published notice. Filing 969 at 2-3. The Court granted that motion. Filing 970.

The government now represents that it will not seek a final order of forfeiture with respect to the liquid assets listed in the previous orders, as those will be ordered payable toward restitution. So, the government asks the Court to enter a second amended preliminary order of forfeiture solely with respect to the remaining parcel of real property. The Court sees no reason to deny the government's motion. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The plaintiff's Motion for Amended Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (filing 971) is granted.

2. Based upon the above-captioned defendants' guilty pleas and admission of the forfeiture allegation of the superseding indictment, the plaintiff is authorized to seize:
